

July 25, 2017

In my 40 years working at the NIST as a research chemist, I have always looked up to Dr. May as friend, colleague, mentor, supervisor, and ultimately, head of NIST. To me he is a most trusted and gifted natural leader, and I am proud to be able to say I worked with him throughout his career. He will always do the right thing for science and the people he leads.

Franklin Guenther
NIST Scientist and Group Leader, Retired
Analytical Chemistry Division
Material Measurement Laboratory